DISAPPOINTING DISPOSAL: The Halton trail, located near the 3 Musketeers Skateboard Park, is the scene of this garbage dump. Mayor Bonnette has indicated that the Works Department has been made aware of the issue and has scheduled a cleaning up. – Submitted photo

For the 17th year, Dufferin Aggregates (CRH Canada Group Inc.) has partnered with local Scouting groups for their Scoutrees Event, a fundraising and environmental impact opportunity for local groups. This year, members of Scouting, Guiding and their families from Acton, Georgetown, Milton and further, helped plant over 2000 trees with an additional 1500 to be planted this week by Dufferin Aggregates staff. Eugene Grooms (top) and his children Jillian, Ella and Ross posed for a family picture while planting trees during the event at the Acton Quarry on Saturday. – Trish Bell and Submitted photos
