CtK student named HCDSB trustee

On April 25, the Halton Catholic District School Board Student Senate held its annual student trustee elections at St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Secondary School in Oakville, and a Christ the King student walked away with one of the titles.

Christina Atrach, a Grade 11 honour roll student at the high school in Georgetown, is an active member of the Mentors Program and the Photography Club, and volunteers with Syrian refugees in Mississauga. She is also a current trustee.

The other two student trustees named are Ingrid Schwecht, a Grade 11 honour student at Assumption Catholic Secondary School in Burlington, and Anamaria Barbul, a Grade 11 honour roll student at Holy Trinity Catholic Secondary School in Oakville.

For the 2017-18 school year, these students will attend board meetings and any board committee meetings. They also might have the opportunity to vote on matters, and attend in-camera sessions.
