Georgetown man charged in collision near Fergus that sent three to hospital

Wellington OPP have charged a 22-year-old Georgetown man with failing to stop for a stop sign in relation to an accident north of Fergus on Friday that sent the driver of the mini-van he hit to hospital with serious injuries.

On May 19, at around 5:10 p.m. members of the Wellington County OPP, along with Guelph-Wellington Emergency Medical Services (EMS) and Centre Wellington Fire and Rescue, responded to a two-vehicle collision involving a pickup truck and minivan on Sid-eroad 15 and Second Line, West Garafraxa.

The pickup truck was southbound on Sec-ond Line and the van was eastbound on Sid-eroad 15 when the collision occurred.

The man driving the van was transported by air ambulance to Hamilton with seri-ous injuries. A female passenger and three-year-old child in the van were transported by Guelph-Wellington EMS to a local hospital with minor injuries.

The driver of the pick-up truck was not in-jured.

As a result of the investigation the driver of the pickup was charged.
