

Students show leadership

Emily Gillon, Silver Creek

Emily is involved in music (band, glee), athletics (intramurals, badminton, track and field), committees (Me to We, Spirit), and provides service (lunch leader, office helper).

She is strong academically and is an enthusiastic student who constantly monitors her own understanding and asks targeted questions to further her learning. Most of all, perhaps, she is unfailingly kind and considerate. It doesn't matter who, she will always seek out a way to make a connection. Also, she communicates with Life Skill students in an inclusive way.

Samantha
McPherson, Stewarttown

Samantha is an outstanding student who excels in all areas. Learning about citizenship is important to her, serving as a page with the provincial government and being elected Prime Minister of the Student Parliament. Leadership in school activities such as concert band, flute ensemble, music and math competitions, Lego robotics and Halton Skills have provided a well-rounded experience. Samantha is an organized leader as shown in her leadership with school-wide assemblies.

Emma Sparks, GDHS

Emma is the treasurer of the Student Council and a very active member of the executive. She got involved immediately when she arrived in Grade 10. She's been on the swim team for three years and she is the captain this year, a member of Link Crew, and drama. As an honours student she has maintained a high average in all subjects. Last summer she did a medical internship at the Morogoro Regional Hospital in Tanzania. She was with an organization called Gap Medics.

Victoria Nascimento,
McKenzie-Smith
Bennett

Victoria is a Grade 8 student at McKenzie-Smith Bennett Public School. She comes to school each day with a positive attitude. She is conscientious and demonstrates incredible initiative and her compassion and caring for others is shown everyday as she enters the school ready for an early morning practice with a big smile on her face, eager and ready to help.

Ava Valvasori, Robert Little

Ava is very strong academically and athletically. She takes the initiative to get involved in everything. Ava is extremely helpful to everyone and never hesitates to assist peers and teachers alike. She is friendly, outgoing, self-motivated, always striving to do her best and help others be their best. She is very positive and always goes above and beyond with a smile.

Ryan Milford, Acton District HS

Ryan has been a positive, respectful role model and an active contributor to school life since he came to Acton H.S. Whether in the classroom or in the many curricular activities he is involved with Ryan supports his fellow students in a warm, good hearted and genuine way. He has had the lead in the school play, participated in the Sears Drama Festival, been the emcee for the talent show, and reads the morning announcements.
