

Halton Hills opens the streets this Saturday

The Town of Halton Hills will launch its Active Easy initiative with an Open Streets community event being offered in partnership with the Downtown Georgetown Farmers Market and the annual Bike It to the Market event on Saturday, June 17.

Open Streets are community-based programs that temporarily open a selected street to people, closing them to cars.

By doing this the streets become a place where people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds can come out, be active and improve their health.

Open Streets are considered a Healthiest Practice because this is a tried and tested model developed by experts and based on results, according to Margaret Taylor, Community Development Supervisor.

By participating in Open Streets, people can begin to change their habits and a city can change its culture of health.

A morning of family-centred fun and free activities Main Street in Georgetown between Maple Avenue and Church Street on Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon.

Events include:

- 8 a.m.-noon Children's Bike Rodeo
- 9-9:30 a.m. Yoga with Studio 2 Yoga
- 10 a.m.-noon Road Hockey
- 9:30-10 a.m. Pound fitness class
- 8 a.m.-noon Hula Hooping & Skipping
- 10-10:30 a.m. Zumba fitness class
- 8:30-9 a.m. Yoga with Studio 2 Yoga
- 10:45-11:15 a.m. Strong fitness class

Ride your yoga mat, ride your bike, bring your skateboard, or come on foot.

An active lifestyle has many benefits, and the goal is to make active choices the easy choices for individuals and families in the community.
