

Georgetown residents win Cash for Life

Edward and Yvonne Mabee of Georgetown are the latest winners of $1,000 a week for life with Instant Cash For Life.

"We have been playing as a group since we tied the knot," shared Yvonne while at the OLG Prize Centre with Edward to pick up their big cheque.

"We have been married for 17 years and have three kids and five grandchildren."

Edward purchased the couple's winning ticket.

"On this day, Yvonne was grocery shopping so I decided to start scratching the Instant tickets I bought while I waited for her to come back home. I saw the three 'Life' symbols on the one play. I knew I won but continued to scratch the remaining tickets. I was definitely happy."

Yvonne returned 30 minutes later.

"Edward wanted me to check the tickets he scratched but I said 'I have groceries to put away.'" But Edward insisted. "I kept telling her to check the tickets and all along I had a big smile on my face."

Yvonne obliged. "I immediately told Edward to go validate the ticket at the store. He said 'I don't need to go, I know we won!'"

Finally, Edward headed to the store. "I went straight to the retailer who ran the ticket through the terminal. OLG called the store to confirm my win."

Meanwhile, Yvonne was wondering what was taking Edward so long.

"I was starting to wonder if he ran away with the ticket," she laughed. "Edward returned with the validation slip. That's when I knew we were winners."

The couple shared the good news with their kids.

"They didn't believe us at first so we had to show them the original ticket."

The couple is planning to pay some bills and put some of it away toward their retirement. "This prize will also help us with home renovations and a family vacation. Winning the lottery feels great and surreal," concluded the pair.

Instant Cash For Life is available for $4 a play and the top prize is $1,000 a week for life. Odds of winning a prize are 1 in 3.93.

The winning ticket was purchased at the Esso station on Highway 7 in Georgetown.
