Legendary Toronto Maple Leafs goaltender Johnny Bower will be on hand to meet fans at the Georgetown Public Library this weekend.

The event, sponsored by the Friends of the Halton Hills Public Library and Star League Sports, will take place from 2-4 p.m. on Saturday (June 24).

Bower, now 92-years-old, was a four-time Stanley Cup Champion with the Toronto Maple Leafs during the team's heyday in the 1960s. The "China Wall" as he came to be known, enjoyed a lengthy NHL career and was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1976.

"He is a Canadian sports icon and many residents have strong memories of his athleticism, leadership and contribution to Canada's great game. He continues

Toronto Pearson: Conversations about our future

Toronto Pearson is an important part of the region and your community. Our airport is growing as an employment zone and now as a transit centre. Both increasing demand for air travel and the rising population of the Greater Toronto Area are behind our growth.

This summer, we are launching a series of initiatives to talk about the airport's plan for long-term growth. Join us for any of our five public workshops taking place across the Greater Toronto Area.

Locations:

East of the airport

Tuesday, June 20, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Ismaili Centre
49 Wynford Drive, North York

North of the airport

Thursday, June 22, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Peel Art Gallery Museum & Archives
9 Wellington Street East, Brampton

South of the airport

Wednesday, June 28, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Assembly Hall
1 Colonel Samuel Smith Park Drive, Etobicoke

Central

Tuesday, July 4, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Mississauga Living Arts Centre
4141 Living Arts Drive, Mississauga

West of the airport

Thursday, July 6, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Harbour Banquet & Conference Centre
2340 Ontario Street, Oakville

Each workshop will include presentations about the airport followed by small group discussions on how to help guide us through the next phase of our growth and ensure that we manage the impact of our operations responsibly. Residents of any neighbourhood are welcome to attend any or all of the workshops.
