would have found out before you guys did." Another team put a brownie and cookie and some other stuff in front of me to see which one I would take. They try to trick you, but it was fun. Coming out of there, my roommate had the major sweats.

IFP: What's the scouting report on you?

ME: Power forward. I'm going to be successful if I play at the next level as a third-line, kind of shut-down, penalty-killing guy. I need to get bigger and stronger and my first three steps have to improve. Just be more comfortable with the puck and have more patience, have guys come to me.

IFP: Do you think you'll be nervous at the draft?

ME: It's nice because you really don't have to do anything. Everything's done, so just go down there and wait for your name to be called. The waiting will be hard, but I'm excited too. A lot of kids don't get to go through this in their lives and it's been a dream that will come true if it does happen.

IFP: What's your favourite NHL team?

ME: The (Toronto Maple) Leafs. Growing up, my favourite players were Darcy Tucker and Mats Sundin. (But) I don't think Toronto is looking for any young forwards any time soon. They're pretty stacked. Do you want to go to an older team like say, Los Angeles, who in a couple of years, the veterans will be gone, and you might get a better chance to play?

IFP: You were on the ground floor when the OHL returned to Hamilton two years ago and it would appear the Bulldogs are on the verge of being championship contenders.

ME: We've got a good core group of guys and I'm sure we'll make a couple of trades to bring in some more experience. We should be able to take a run at it this year or the year after. It's been great playing there. (Hamilton's) not too close to home, but it's not that far away so you can go home on off-days and see your family. And it's nice that there's someone at every single home game.

Eagles grab tourney title in St. Thomas

The Halton Hills Tier I rookie Eagles pounded out an average of 14 runs per game while going undefeated to capture the championship at a youth baseball tournament in St. Thomas earlier this month.

But the Eagles, the defending OBA champions, needed some strong defence as well to edge Brantford in the final 5-3.

Preliminary round - Halton Hills 19, Stouffville 3; Halton Hills 19, St. Thomas 4; Halton Hills 12, Niagara Falls 2

Semifinal - Halton Hills 15, Mississauga North 5

Final - Halton Hills 5, Brantford 3

Bulldogs to face Oakville in opening playoff round

The Halton Hills Bulldogs are on a four-game losing streak heading into the Ontario Jr. B Lacrosse League playoffs after coming away with nothing from their weekend road trip against Far East Division opponents.

Halton Hills did clinch the South East Division title with its 12-7-1 record to finish fourth in the East Conference to set up a Halton post-season clash with the fifth-place Oakville Buzz, which finished up at 11-8-1.

Veteran Cam Downey scored 51 seconds into Sunday afternoon's contest at Akwesasne for the Bulldogs but the host Indians took control in the middle frame and went on to a 10-3 triumph.

Derek Jensen and John Vezina also tallied for the 'Dogs, who were outshot 45-43 and went 0 for 9 on the power play.

On Saturday at Kahunawake, the Hunters led 5-1 by the 16-minute mark and held on for a 9-7 victory to leapfrog Halton Hills for third spot in the conference.

Cody Menzies (2), John Vezina (2), Matt Hodgins, Nathan Ethier and Derek Jensen had the goals.

Series dates for Halton Hills vs. Oakville have yet to be announced.
