

WORD ON THE STREET

With Jane Dougan

"What does it mean to you to be Canadian?"

Bernetta Arsenault "It means peace. We are a freedom country."

Dora Jeffries "I'm grateful to live here and proud to be Canadian, but it upsets me that our country was created at the expense of our indigenous people, and it continues to this day."

Barb Petter "Comfort. It means comfort and pride."

Jodie Toebes "It means freedom, being multi-cultural, being peaceful."

Pair of suspicious fires in Erin

The call came in to the Erin Fire Department at 8:11 a.m. on Sunday morning for a structure fire at the corner of Third Line and the Tenth Side Rd. in Erin. While crews were on scene, a call came in for a second structure fire, about 1 km west, at 5338 Wellington County Rd. 125, also located in Erin. Both fires are being treated as suspicious, as both were vacant buildings located on the edge of Gravel Pits operated by Cox Construction, or one its subsidiaries. Neither building had Hydro, nor any other services connected. The fires were both extinguished by mid-afternoon. The OPP Identification Unit was on the scene, and the Ontario Fire Marshall's Office has been notified. A vehicle was seen leaving the Third Line fire, and both organizations will be investigating this pair of suspicious fires.

Notice of the Passing of an Amending Education Development Charges By-law

TAKE NOTICE that on the 21st day of June, 2017, the Halton District School Board (the "Board") passed Education Development Charges Amending By-law, 2017, which amends the Education Development Charges By-law, (2013) of the Board.

AND TAKE NOTICE that any person or organization may appeal the By-law to the Ontario Municipal Board under Section 257.65 of the Education Act by filing with the Secretary of the Halton District School Board on or before the 31st day of July, 2017, a notice of appeal setting out the objection to the By-law and the reasons supporting the objection. The appeal may not raise an issue that could have been raised in an appeal under Section 257.65 of the Education Act of Education Development Charges By-law, (2013).

The said amending By-law comes into force on June 26, 2017, and increases the education development charge on residential development to $4,364.00 per dwelling unit and the education development charge on non-residential development to $1.11 per square foot ($11.95 per square metre) of gross floor area. No other amendment to Education Development Charges By-law, (2013) has been made in the amending By-law.

A complete copy of the amending By-law is available for examination in the offices of the Board located at 2050 Guelph Line, J.W. Singleton Education Centre, Burlington, Ontario, during regular office hours or on the Board's website at www.hdsb.ca.

Dated at the City of Burlington this 22nd day of June, 2017.
