Tourney to be held at Eagle Ridge Golf Course

Jeff and Darlene Sutherland, Zach's parents, reached out to some of their family and friends, and before the group knew it, the event was completely sold out.

"We wanted to make sure everyone who wanted to be involved got to be involved," Callum said.

The brothers have plans to keep the golf tournament going annually so the scholarship can be funded in the coming years.

The event will take place at Eagle Ridge Golf Course on July 29.

Although the event is sold out, the brothers are still looking for prizes for the raffle and hole sponsorships are still available.

"I just hope we can use the day of fun," Callum said. "Hopefully everyone has a fun time and remembers them in a positive

In February 2016, Zach Sutherland and Kaya Firth lost their lives during a kayaking trip on the Credit River. To honour them, brothers Ryan and Callum Biehn have organized a golf tournament at Eagle Ridge Golf Course to act as a fundraiser for a scholarship the Sutherland and Firth families have started, called the Zach Sutherland and Kaya Firth Resiliency Scholarship.

The boys anticipate a day of celebration and to remember two people who meant a lot to the community.

"We want to use this as a way to have fun and share memories," Ryan said. "They are two wonderful people who were taken too early from us, and we'd love an opportunity to remember them."
