One night this past March, several vehicles were broken into in Georgetown and police have arrested a suspect.

Throughout the investigation, Halton Regional Police Service (HRPS) learned a suspect stole credit cards, which were later used for fraudulent purchases in Brampton, and had been using a stolen car.

On July 31, police located and arrested, Joshua Ali, 20, of Brampton. He is charged with two counts of possession of property obtained by crime, six counts of fraud under $6,000, and two counts of possession of a controlled substance. He has been released on a promise to appear in court.

Anyone with information about this crime or other crimes is encouraged to contact the 1 District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-825-4747 ext. 2416. Tips can also be submitted to Crime Stoppers' "See something, Hear something, Say something" at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), through the website at www.haltoncrimestoppers.ca, or by texting "Tip201" with your message to 274637 (crimes).

Highway 7 crash sends woman to Hamilton hospital

A woman was airlifted to a Hamilton hospital with serious injuries following a collision between a car and tractor-trailer late Monday evening near Acton.

The collision occurred at around 10:30 p.m. at Highway 7 and the Sixth Line.

The female driver of the car was trapped in the vehicle and was extricated by members of the Halton Hills Fire Department.

She was later transported by Ornge air ambulance from Georgetown Hospital to Hamilton General Hospital.
