HEAD FOR THE HILLS CRAFT BEER FESTIVAL

The The Head for the Hills craft beer festival promises a great time, and it's back for its third event. Head for the Hills is a day jam-packed with good music, delicious gourmet food, and the best craft beer and cider you can find from the local area. In 2015, Georgetown's Rotary club, Lions, Kiwanis, and Kinsmen banded together to create the festival. It is run completely by volunteers and, this year, all proceeds will be donated to Food4Kids Halton, a group that provides food for local youth at risk of malnutrition. The event takes place on Sept. 16 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Trafalgar Sports Park, 11494 Trafalgar Rd., Georgetown. Advanced tickets are on sale now for $25 and include a customized Head for the Hills beer stein and four tokens for four samples of beer or cider. Additional tokens can be purchased on the Head for the Hills website for $5 for four. The event will take place rain or shine. The event sells out, so get your tickets before they're gone.
