Simply fresh. Simply fun. Simply local.

Halton is home to a thriving agricultural industry that we are proud to support. We continue to work with community partners to ensure local farming practices are sustainable and protect rural areas for generations to come.

Residents are encouraged to buy and eat local. Pick up fresh produce from our local fruit and vegetable growers, learn about livestock operations, visit a kid-friendly farm with activities for the whole family or stop by one of our many nurseries or garden centres. Visit halton.ca/simplylocal to find a map of farms, markets and activities across the region.

2017 PHOTOART MAYOR'S CHOICE AWARD

Graeme Frisque/Metroland Media

Mayor Rick Bonnette congratulates Nathan Hiller in council chambers at Town Hall on Aug. 2 for his winning entry in the PhotoArt 2017 Mayor's Choices Award. Hiller's winning piece is a photograph of downtown Georgetown rendered through High Dynamic Range (HDR). According to Hiller, the process involves combining several time-lapsed shots to create a single image. Hiller has been a member of the Halton Hills Camera Club for more than 20 years. His entry was chosen from among 300 submissions and will hang in the mayor's office throughout the next year until next year's winner is selected.
