Duo takes top spot at Tango League tourney

As the youngest team in the tournament, Justin Loginov of Georgetown and Acton's Frank Previte proved that exuberance can prevail over experience by winning the recent Adidas Tango League street soccer event in Toronto.

The local players, both aged 17, took all six of their matches and defeated a duo in their 20s in the final match 3-1, played in front of an invitation-only crowd of 500 people at Longboat Hall, including members of Major League Soccer's Toronto FC. The Tango League is a worldwide campaign that attracts young talent (aged 16-25) to play in two-a-side street soccer tournaments consisting of four-minute games.

Along with the championship trophy, Christ the King Secondary School students Previte and Loginov received $1,000 each in Adidas merchandise and an invitation to play in the next tournament in December.

They are also teammates on the North Mississauga under-17 boys' squad.

It was the first time that Toronto has hosted a Tango League tournament.

Bodrug earns softball scholarship to Florida school

Local teenager Dawn Bodrug will be bringing the heat in Florida starting this fall as the right-handed pitcher recently signed a Letter of Intent to attend Indian River State College and play for the women's varsity softball team when the season begins in early 2018.

The 17-year-old Christ the King Secondary School graduate has a fastball that tops out in the mid-60s miles per hour range, and began playing as an eight-year-old with the Halton Hawks' organization.

She spent eight years in the Hawks' system before moving on to the Port Perry Angels' elite-level team last summer. The five-foot-10-inch Bodrug is looking to earn an associate degree in business and sports management.

Christ the King Secondary School grad Dawn Bodrug recently signed her National Letter of Intent to attend Indian River State College in Fort Pierce, Fla.
