The Halton Hills Public Library has received $3,000 from the Caddystacks 2 event, which took place earlier this year.

In its second successful year as a unique library fundraiser, Caddystacks 2 provided an afternoon of minigolf among the library stacks for families, plus a social evening of minigolf and great food for adults. The event is hosted by Friends of the Halton Hills Public Library, and the event proved popular among Halton Hills residents and was extremely well attended.

The funds raised will go toward the construction of the new Acton Reading Deck - an outdoor seating area to read a book during the warmer months.

In July, a presentation ceremony took place at the Acton Branch, where chief librarian Geoff Cannon was proud to receive the funds on behalf of the library.

"I'm thrilled by the response to Caddystacks 2, and as always very grateful for the superb efforts of the Friends of the Halton Hills Public Library," Cannon said.

"It's a complete joy to watch people having so much fun at the event, and to know we are a little closer to realizing the Acton Reading Deck. Although we're extremely proud of our collection, we know people think of us as more than just books - we're a vital centre for our community to bond together with innovative and imaginative experiences."

Mark Rowe, Chair of the Friends of the Halton Hills Public Library, echoed those sentiments as he presented the cheque. Rowe also thanked the sponsors of the event, which include Royal Bank of Canada, The Club at North Halton, The Georgetown Group Limited, Oh Wadda Card, other local businesses.

The third annual Caddystacks event is scheduled for April 7, 2018.
