Casey Brandreth "Yes, for sure. Just making sure doors are locked, lights are on. We look out more often to make sure no one is lurking."

Jessica Downey "Yes, we do leave the motion lights on outside, and we make sure our vehicles are locked."

"With all the break-ins in Rockwood lately, have you taken measures to improve your home security?"

Scott Lecain "I have a 140 lb. dog that goes off as soon as anyone comes in the driveway. I'm not in a secluded area, anyways."

Fred Stainer "No. We don't think we'd have that problem in our neighbourhood, just based on the configuration. I think it depends a lot on how the house is accessed. We also have a security camera. It's not so much the kind of neighbourhood your living in, as it is the layout of it."

Michael Chong appointed to Official Opposition's Shadow Cabinet

was named as the Official Opposition's Shadow Minister for Infrastructure, Communities and Urban Affairs. The announcement was made today by Leader of the Official Opposition, Andrew Scheer.

"I'm excited to take on this new role, and I'm proud to be working alongside an experienced team that will continue to hold the government to account on behalf of all Canadians," said Chong. "I look forward to building a stronger Conservative Party, as well as building a stronger Canada for everyone."

Chong was first elected to the House of Commons in 2004 as the Member of Parliament for Wellington-Halton Hills. He has served as Minister of Intergovernmental Affairs and Minister for Sport, as well as President of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada. He grew up in Fergus, where he lives with his wife Carrie and their three young sons.
