Halton Police are searching for four suspects after two vehicles were stolen from the Gellert Community Centre in Georgetown on Wednesday (July 19).

In a release sent Friday (July 21), police said the four young men allegedly broke into several lockers in the complex and stole the keys to two vehicles. The vehicles were then stolen from the parking lot.

The first suspect is described a white male in his late teens to early 20s, approximately five-foot-nine to five-foot-11 in height, with shoulder-length black hair. He was wearing blue shorts, black skater-style shoes and white ankle socks, a blue-and-grey backwards hat, and a blue-and-white puma tracksuit top. He was also carrying a blue backpack with small white letters.

Suspect two is described as black male in his late teens to early 20s. He stood approximately five-foot-nine to five-foot-11 and had black hair. This suspect was wearing white headphones, a dark jacket and T-shirt with red letters and images, red shorts, black basketball-style shoes, and black socks.

The third suspect is described as male, possibly South Asian, in his late teens early to early 20s, approximately five-foot-nine to five-foot-11, with short black hair and short black beard. This suspect was wearing a blue Toronto Blue Jays hat, gold neck chain, light grey long-sleeved shirt, gold wrist chain, white belt, dark jeans, with black-and-white running shoes.

Suspect number four is described as male, black, in his late teens to early 20s, approximately five-foot-nine to five-foot-11, with short black hair. He was wearing a blue Toronto Blue Jays hat, blue-and-white tracksuit top, and a red-and-white long-sleeved shirt with "CANADA" written on the front. He was also wearing black jeans and white shoes.

Images included with the release cannot be shown after police identified at least one of the suspects as a minor.

Anyone with information is being asked to contact Detective Constable Simon Burden of the Georgetown Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-825-4747 ext. 2116. Tips can also be submitted to Crime Stoppers "See something, Hear something, Say something" at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), through its website at www.haltoncrimestopper-s.ca., or by texting "Tip 201" with your message to 274637 (crimes).
