

WORD IN THE VILLAGE

with Vivien Fleisher

“Do you feel the next step for recreation in Rockwood is an arena?”

Sherol Steinberg: “No. Rockwood does not have the tax base to pay for one. The cost to run it is too high. I’d prefer an outdoor refrigerated ice pad.”

Katrina Baklarz: “No. Our taxes in Rockwood are already high enough. As much as I’d love one, we can’t afford it.”

Janice Gilmour: “Yes, we have so many baseball diamonds, but not soccer. It’s sad they don’t have a light-up soccer field. And the area is getting so big; the kids need a place to go in winter.”

Trixie Currie: “Yeah, it would be a great addition to our community. For the growing town it’s something beneficial. And for the environment too because it saves on people having to drive farther.”
