

Police looking for break-and-enter suspects

During the early hours of Saturday, Sept. 2, a residential break-and-enter occurred in the Bishop Court subdivision located north of Glen Williams.

The thieves entered the home by damaging a basement window, stealing multiple game consoles and a Visa debit card.

They then went to the Esso gas station on Guelph Street in Georgetown, using the stolen Visa card to purchase gas.

The first thief is described as a white man, about six-foot-two and wearing a black hoodie, black hat with a white logo, blue T-shirt, black pants with black and white shoes.

The second is a black man about six-foot-three with dreadlock-style hair, wearing sunglasses on top of his head, camouflage jacket and shirt, blue jeans with black and white shoes.

It's not clear if the third person was a man, but he or she had a dark hoodie, dark pants, a white scarf covering the face and was carrying a red backpack.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Det. Const. Simon Burden at 905-878-5511 ext. 2116.

Captured on surveillance footage at the Esso gas station are two of three suspects in a break-and-enter that took place earlier this month at a home in north Halton Hills.
