First of all, I want to thank Melissa for making my first time going through this experience of purchasing a home an exciting but simple process. I initially met Melissa through family for which she was working with, and from that initial meeting her professionalism and organizational skills demonstrated what to expect when working with her.

Melissa was able to book viewings with ease, even with my difficult schedule to work around. With each viewing she provided knowledgeable and relevant information from her personal and professional experiences. She gave great advice in relation to all aspect of buying my first home.

Melissa helped me feel comfortable and confident through her patients, knowledge, and support throughout this experience. It was a pleasure working with Melissa, and I would recommend her to any of my friends and family.
