The lanes have gone silent at Georgetown Bowl - perhaps permanently.

An eviction letter taped to the door at the bowling alley, located on Mountainview Road near Guelph Street, claims the doors were locked due to non-payment of rent totaling more than $215,000.

According to owner Tony Bonora, the bowling centre was about a week away from reopening after renovations when he found out about the eviction.

"We were under renovations giving the place a new look, new bathrooms, new carpet, counters, etc. The bowling centre was hit by Georgetown Bowl, which has been in operation at its Ghelph Street and Mountainview Road location for decades, has closed down due to non-payment of rent.

lightning on Aug. 12 and our computerized scoring (system) was destroyed," said Bonora, adding a new system was being installed when news of the eviction came.

"We were blindsided when all this went down," he added.

It remains unclear if the bowling alley will reopen at this point. Bonora said he is contesting the eviction and the back rent claim, but added the future of the business is in the air given these new developments.

"We will see if the centre reopens - no promises," said Bonora.
