

Capital Grant provides Acton Curling Club accessibility

The Acton Curling Club welcomed members of the public to an open house and ribbon-cutting ceremony recently to mark the addition of an accessible ramp, accessibility upgrades and much needed interior system upgrades to the half-century-old facility.

Local MPP Ted Arnott, MP Mike Chong and Halton Hills Coun. Clark Somerville were on hand to congratulate club members and the renovation committee on the work done with the $250,000 Ontario150 Community Capital Program grant awarded earlier this year.

The renovation/grant committee used the grant and its memberships' past eight years of substantial building-fund savings to accomplish this long-term goal. In addition to the installation of an accessible ramp, accessibility upgrades included the addition of an accessible chair lift at the primary entrance and renovations to existing washroom and change room facilities, including a new accessible washroom.

The building is used by many members of the sport of curling, including a Special Olympics curling league, and is open to a variety of community organizations for curling bonspiels, OCA events, meetings, celebrations and fundraisers. People of all abilities will now be able to access both levels of the building.

"The impact of this Ontario150 Capital grant cannot be underestimated," said Madalene Reed, chair of the renovation committee and past president. The club's intent is to preserve this space and ensure it remains accessible for many community events and bonspiels.
