

NHKR Hobo the perfect addition to your big family

BARB JOHNSON

Hobo and his female companion Butter Tart were fortunate to find a sympathetic family after they found themselves homeless in an unfamiliar rural area. The family fed and sheltered the cats, hoping someone would be looking for the friendly gentle pair. When no owners were located, the family surrendered the two cats to North Halton Kitten Rescue.

Hobo's favourite aspects of life are playing, receiving attention from people, and more playing. He enjoys the younger cats and they think he is fun. The older cats think he is annoying which he doesn't understand.

He is fascinated with the outdoors but does not dash to get out, but he would walk outside if the door was left open. Hobo would like to follow his people outside, a sharp no and he stops at the doorstep.

Hobo is clean with his litter box, enjoys brushing and has no clue what clipping his nails is about but he loves to be held.

Hobo and Butter Tart will be available for adoption this Saturday at Pet Valu, 375 Mountainview Rd. S. from 2-4 p.m. The $160 cash adoption fee includes vaccinations, parasite treatments, neutering, microchip and a bag of food. For more information visit www.NHKR.ca or call Barb 905-873-8547.

UCHS Shrek an independent, lively boy

JUDITH-ANNE KOLU

Shrek arrived at UCHS on Dec. 28 last year, as a transfer from another facility that deemed him unadoptable. He did need some tender loving care and has undergone full dental work (via Trooper's Fund), and is now fully vaccinated, microchipped and neutered.

Shrek is an attractive brown tabby with white accents, compact shape who hides his age well. Shrek looks much younger than his nearly 10 years but is proud that he will be afforded a "special fee arrangement" to help get him rehomed.

Shrek has tons of energy. He is the first to come forward to greet visitors, he enjoys reserved petting, and is ever ready for treats! Down time will find him having snoozes by the window in a warming sunbeam. Shrek will need an adult, quiet home as he would not enjoy the fussing of small children. He is adverse to being picked up and hauled about.

Shrek enjoys life on his own terms and might do best as an only cat. Staff say he loves to "rule the room" and is clear in his intent. Shrek doesn't mind being left alone with his thoughts, ideal for a home or maybe even a shop where he would have pride of place, but would be equally happy when alone.

For more information on Shrek, call the shelter at 519-833-2287 or email info@uppercredit.com for an introduction and to learn more about his fee special arrangement.

Never leave pets alone around an open flame.

Ensure your smoke alarms are functioning properly, & educate your family on fire safety.

PET FIRE SAFETY TIPS

Ensure your pet is microchipped or wearing an ID, in case you get separated during a fire.

Prevent pets from touching stove/burner knobs & be mindful of pets in the kitchen.

Pet-proof your house. Keep electrical hazards & flammable items away.
