Rockwood Remembers

Rockwood's Remembrance Day ceremony drew the biggest crowd in GET Mayor Chris White's memory. Falling perfectly on a Saturday, the bitter cold could not keep people away. While the chairs set up for veterans were mostly empty, 97-year-old Systke Drijber, who served with the Dutch forces in Indonesia in intelligence as a translator, attended. Her husband Oscar, a commando in Indonesia too, is buried in the Rockwood Cemetery. Two Rockwood residents who usually attend—Alec Graham and Wally Graham were not there. Wally, who served in Normandy, passed away this year at 97, and Alec now lives in Brampton.
