Halton councillors alarmed over public health recommendations

Halton Regional council has learned of a new operating model regarding public health which is causing worry and alarm among councillors.

During the health and social services meeting on Oct. 3, Dr. Daniela Kempkens, acting medical officer of health for Halton, presented council with some changes the Ministry of Health wants to incorporate in Ontario.

The Minister of Health, Eric Hoskins, created an expert panel on public health to give advice on the best structure for public health. The panel was asked to consider how to best organize public health and ensure ac-
