On Sunday, Nov. 5, the Georgetown Craft Beer Festival presented a cheque to Eva Podoski of Food4Kids North Halton in the amount of $25,000.

Helping make the presentation were many steering committee members including John Fini and Linda Dilks of the Lions Club; Mark Maramieri and Bryan Whitteker of the Kinsman Club; Peter Zavitz, Victoria Colby and Rick Kritschgau of the Rotary Club; and Jan Allison and Doug Lounsbury of the Kiwanis Club.

Food4Kids North Halton provides at-risk children with backpacks of food to take home on weekends to ensure healthy meals. The cheque presentation was made at a volunteer appreciation event hosted at Ares Restaurant at which craft beer and light refreshments were served.

The continued success of the Craft Beer Festival is completely dependent on committee members and the fantastic volunteers that contribute their time to make the festival the signature event that it has become. Linda Dilks estimates that the day of the festival requires 1,000 volunteer hours, and tops 7,000 hours when combining the committee hours needed during the year.
