

HALC-Georgetown hosting annual Christmas Craft Fair on Nov. 18

FLORENCE RIEHL

HILLSVIEW Active Living Centre

The Hort Heads, the indoor gardening group, are trying something new for the winter session. They are offering one workshop per month. Each will be on the second Tuesday of the month at 10 a.m. Space will be limited to six participants and the cost will be $5 per class for members ($10 per class for nonmembers). The class for Nov. 14 will be pressed flowers on candles, then on Dec. 12, you will be making an indoor Christmas centre-piece. Your fee for each class includes all supplies. The word "Christmas" brings a reminder that our annual Christmas Craft Fair will be held on Saturday, Nov. 18. This is an opportunity to get some of your Christmas shopping underway. It will feature vendor tables, as well as some of our very own crafty people. Donations for the Craft Fair are to be brought into the centre the week of Nov. 13, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Later on that evening at 5:30 p.m., you can bundle up and come out to welcome Santa Claus to Georgetown. Always an exciting time.

Looking for help with muscle aches and pains, insomnia, headaches, anxiety, memory/stress and skin care?

You will want to attend the Making Scents of Aro-matherapy session on Tuesday, Nov. 21 at 10 a.m. Drop-in fee of $2 applies. Please sign up at reception. This will be presented by Ida Mae Woodburn, a certified aroma therapist. Paint and Cocktails sounds like a great event.

Come out on Wednesday, Nov. 22 at 1 p.m. and try something different, a class where you paint a wine glass. For the cost of $30 ($35 for nonmembers), you will receive all materials to paint two wine glasses.

HALC-Acton hosts social dinner on Nov. 13

JULIE CONROY

HILLSVIEW Active Living Centre

There is a new program starting on Monday mornings. If you have always wanted to learn to knit, crochet, tat or sew, this is your opportunity to find out how. Marilyn Silk is a very crafty person and has volunteered to share her knowledge. For the first gathering there were five ladies plus Marilyn, exchanging ideas and techniques.

There is also a paper tole class every Thursday morning at 10 a.m. If that interests you, drop in and talk to the instructor Donna Young.

Our next social dinner is on Monday, Nov. 13. Ronnie Russell will be entertaining us. Please try to wear red if you plan to attend, as a salute to our veterans.

The next Saturday evening bingo is on Nov. 18 at 7 p.m.

The next big fundraising event for the centre is the Christmas Fair and Tea Room on Nov. 25. Everyone raves about our delicious lunch. The lists are up for anyone who would like to donate something toward the tea.

To help get you in the Christmas spirit, there will be our annual tree decorating with a light lunch and storytelling on Nov. 21 starting at 11:30 a.m. Please sign up at reception.

The next Lunch and Learn is on Dec. 5 at 12 p.m. You will enjoy beef stew and dessert. The topic this month is "Beating the Holiday Blues." Sign up quickly if you are interested.

Lunch on Nov. 17 begins with cheese and crackers followed by salad and chicken pie plus dessert. Bingo starts at 1:15 p.m.
