

This Friday, Sept. 27, Acton High School will host The Human Factory: a new take on haunted houses. All proceeds will go to a local food bank as well as the school's Me to We club. Here, two drama students grab an unsuspecting visitor.

Acton High Drama presents a bone-chilling interactive narrative that will shake you to the core.

This Friday, Oct. 27 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. will feature a haunted house at Acton High School. Step into the assembly line and explore the haunting inner workings of The Founders Office. For the unlucky few, find out if you have what it takes to survive The Discard Pile.

In a fresh take on a traditional haunted house, this year's house is guaranteed to scare.

Despite the coldness of the house, it is for a cause that will warm your heart. All funds raised and the non-perishable food items will be donated to the local food bank and the school's Me to We club.

Tickets cost $2 or two non-perishable food items.

Fog machines and strobe lights will be utilized during the event. This event is not suitable for young children.
