This Saturday, Oct. 28, marks the first annual Isaac's Trek for Treats: a fun kids' costume trail run being held at Tanner's Sports Park.

Spearheaded by the van Asseldonk family in Acton, the event will be used as a way to raise money and awareness for Jesse's Journey. They are the only Canadian charity who strictly funds research for Duchenne muscular dystrophy.

The trail race will begin at 10 a.m., and other activities will be available that morning, including a silent auction, a DJ, static fire and military displays, photographers and refreshments at the finish line, with pizza sponsored by Domino's Pizza.

The first 150 kids registered will receive a loot bag.

Entry fees are just $10 for one child, and $5 for each subsequent child.

While fundraising for the event is not a requirement, the top fundraiser will re-
