WORD ON THE STREET

With Alex Hilson

If your street is without a paper carrier, would you prefer your newspaper tossed to your property from a car, or would you rather collect your newspaper from a box?

John Kirkwood: "We live in town. We get the paper delivered which we like. It's okay being tossed. I'm just happy to get a paper."

Kevin Telo: "People like it to the door. They like the old-fashioned way. Tossing it is fine, as long as they are accurate."

Casey Mills: "Might be better with the newspaper box. I don't really read the paper, and it's just lying in the driveway."

Tony Robinson: "I'll take the tossed from a car. Don't have to walk as far. Nobody's going to steal my Tanner."

WORD IN THE VILLAGE

with Vivien Fleisher

How will you be spending Family Day this year?

Dave Burton: "We have four children, and our youngest grandchild is eight months, and two other grandsons who are just over four weeks old now, so I expect we'll be spending family day with them."

Dean Beattie: "We're doing a winter hike and tobogganing, and we're having guests over to join us in that."

Anne Balanyk: "Well it's actually my granddaughter's eighth birthday, so we're having a family party on Sunday to celebrate. And on the Saturday, I'm spending time with my other grandchildren because they're playing hockey. So, I'll see all my four grandchildren."

Frances Jamieson: "I'm going to spend it with my grandson, and hopefully make a snowman. The snow's no good right now. You can't make a snowball."
