Festival headliners announced

By: Dawn Brown

The Acton BIA announced its headlining act for this year's 27th annual Leathertown Festival this week. Award winning children's entertainers Splash 'N Boots will be the featured act at this year's Leathertown Festival—which will be held on August 12 on Mill Street.

Splash 'N Boots who appear on the children's television show "The Big Yellow Boot", have been nominated five times for a Juno in the category "Children's Album of the Year" and have won the Indie Award for "Children's Music of the Year" three times. These accolades as well as the performers appearing in over 8.3 million homes across Canada as a result of their number one T.V. show, played big factors in choosing them as the featured act.

"Splash 'N Boots have inspired an international community of families who connect through their music," explained BIA Manager Dianne Gowland.

Gowland added that this year's Leathertown Festival will also include an exciting array of local talent and over 100 Vendors. "People can expect great performances of local and country-wide talent, interesting and eclectic merchandise and amazing food!"

This year, Leathertown will be adding a musical showcase on Saturday evening that will feature local bars and restaurants in partnership with some of the best musical talent that Halton Hills has to offer. On Sunday, headliner Splash 'N Boots will be performing hits from their latest album, "Love, Kisses and Hugs" as well other favourites, while other local musical talents will be showcased at various locations throughout the festival.

"The Leathertown Festival began in 1991 as a definitive family event that draws together community, businesses and the people of Acton," said Gowland. "Each year we continue to grow this grassroots community initiative which has evolved into the largest street festival in Halton Hills attracting over 15,000 locals and visitors."
