Fears, Cheers, and Unclears!

Come Join Us!

Social Media is a big word these days. As a parent or community member, we hear about how kids are using it to bully each other, remain anonymous, and increase their social status. However, we also hear (and see) how children of all ages can use social media to make positive, social and political changes in the world. Either way, it is a powerful tool.

MSB is hosting a parent evening where Jennifer Casa-Todd, author of "Social LEADia", will speak to us about the fears involved in parenting children in this social media age, the things you can cheer about, and the things that are unclear.

Jennifer is a teacher, an engaging speaker and understands how to harness the use of social media in a positive way.

When: April 11, 2018
6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Where: MSB South Gym

ALL community members are welcome!

Whether you have children, grandchildren, nieces or nephews, or just interact with your neighbour's kids, this is something that affects us all. Come join us for an evening of learning so much more about the power of social media from both sides.

Coffee/beverages and light snacks will be provided.

See you there!
