Pay increase raises concern

To the Editor,

I would like to express my concern for the raises that the Mayor and Councillors have voted for themselves, Council salaries going from $31,555 to $39,668, and the Mayor's going from $90,563 to $114,783.

Looks like the provincial government has taken away the tax break of one third tax exempt on the salaries that they currently receive so council has decided to vote themselves a raise. Why are they entitled to such a large tax break for working for the municipality which they are well paid for?

This does not seem fair to me and they should not be allowed to give themselves a salary increase.

One set of rules for taxpayers, different rules for politicians

Yet all of the volunteers who devote their time to minor sports and other community events are not entitled to any tax breaks.

Since 2018 is an election year, why don't we see what the Halton Hills Taxpayers have to say by having a referendum?

HILLSVIEW REPORT - GEORGETOWN

By: Florence Riehl

Hurrah! Good News. No change for ActiVan clients. Town Staff worked with Tyler Transport to ensure service level remains in place. On March 26, the Town Council endorsed recommendations to transition all existing ActiVan operations to an in-house service offered on a contractual basis.

Please note that the 50/50 draw will take place on Thursdays at 1 p.m. If you participate, please ensure your two dollars is in the 50/50 box by that time.

Beginning immediately evening Euchre held on the first and third Tuesday evening of each month is now cancelled due to low participation. Any questions or concerns please contact staff.

A final reminder that our Annual General Meeting will take place on Thursday, April 12 at 1 p.m. This is your opportunity to get caught up with Your Centre business and future plans. Come out to take part and show your interest in Your Centre.

We start our second session of Weight Watchers at the Centre on April 20. We meet Fridays at 8:30 a.m. for weigh-in and a short meeting. I can personally vouch that this is the best and easiest program Weight Watchers has ever offered. If you have an interest in joining our fun group, please talk to Terri.

How can you add fun to your years? Become a volunteer. This provides an opportunity to be part of your community, meet new people and make new friends. Volunteer week is April 15 to 21, a time to say thanks and show our appreciation to all the volunteers who keep our Centre buzzing.

The new Hillsview for April and May is now ready for you to pick up. Lots of wonderful things happening at Hillsview Active Living Centre, Georgetown.
