

HILLSVIEW REPORT - ACTON

By: Julie Conroy

The latest copy of Hillsview is at the reception desk. Don't forget to pick up yours. It covers April and May. We are printing an additional Hillsview each year—five copies instead of four. There are some new programs being offered this time as well as the tried and true ones. You can exercise your mind and body in many different ways, drop in for a coffee and a chat, or create beautiful pictures in either the paper tole or watercolour painting classes. The Lunch and Learn programs and Men's Breakfast are very enjoyable.

The second of our Spring Nights Live Music Series is on Friday, April 27. It features The Pepper Shakers who play 50's, 60's and 70's music. They are being held at the Ballinafad Community Centre and doors open at 7 p.m. Music starts at 8 p.m. Refreshments are available. For tickets call HALC in Acton 519-853-5951 or Georgetown 905-877-6444. This event is open to the community.

Due to the early deadline, the Bid Euchre mooners were not in last week's New Tanner. Roberta Thompson had one mooner and Frances Hogenbirk had two. This past Thursday—April 5—Shirley Hunter and Frances Hogenbirk each had one.

At this week's funding meeting, the upcoming Mother's Day Tea was discussed. It will be held on Saturday, May 12 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. We are famous for our delicious tea. We will also have a bake table, 50/50 draw, penny table with lots of great prizes, and a great selection of reasonably priced books ready for your summer reading.

Tickets are going well for the April 16 Spring Social dinner. You will be enjoying ribs, roasted potatoes and dessert. The music will be by the popular Dr J. The cut-off date is Thursday at 3 p.m.

The monthly Saturday evening Bingo is very popular. Every month we see an increase in players. Everyone seems to enjoy the new format. The next Bingo is on Saturday, April 21 at 7 p.m.

One more leaf was added to our Tree of Hope by Mary and Hank Walsma in memory of Hank's aunt Gertrude Frankruyter.

Grace Graham was happy to hear she had won the weekly 50/50 draw. She won $55; a nice surprise after returning from her three months in Florida.

Lunch on Friday, April 13 is soup and sandwiches plus dessert followed by Bingo at 1:15 p.m.
