

HILLSVIEW REPORT- GEORGETOWN

By: Florence Riehl

A grant has been received to cover the full cost of all the bands in the "Spring Nights Music Series" at the Ballinafad Community Centre. This series starts April 13, featuring Jake Chisholm. Doors open at 7 p.m. You can purchase your ticket at the office.

It is time once more for our Annual Spring Fashion Show. We are again featuring the fashions of Alia Tan/Jay and Northern Reflections. Tickets are available at reception and at Northern Reflections and Alia Tan/Jay stores in the Georgetown Market Place. There will be no tickets sold at the door the day of the Fashion Show. You will want to come early to hear our Jazz Trio play some smoooooth jazz.

The next computer workshop, on April 18, will be teaching us about using the internet. Sometimes we think we know all there is to know, but I have never taken a class when I didn't learn something new. Class starts at 9:30 a.m. and runs for two hours. It would be helpful if you would sign up at reception.

The title of the next Friday Toonie Movie on April 27 is "Home Again" starring Reese Witherspoon and Candice Bergen.

You have been asking and now I can tell you that the sign-up sheet is out for the ever popular "Lunenburg & Steak BBQ". Please note the change of date to July 25.

WORD ON THE STREET

With Alex Hilson

Darryl Cassey: "I think in this day and age the number should be bumped higher. What year did $100k become the number, anyways?"

Heather Dabkowski: "No, I think it should be more because I don't think 100k is that much in this day or age."

The sunshine list is based on salaries of over $100k for public sector employees. Do you think $100k is reasonable, or should it be higher/lower?

Mandi Townshend: "I think 100k is a reasonable limit. 100k is a very, very good salary."

Stephanie Barrington: "I would say 100k is reasonable when you look at the average Canadian income."
