Hammer brandished in convenience store robbery

Halton regional police are looking for three suspects after the Circle K Convenience Store on Mountainview Road near Guelph Street was robbed on early Monday evening.

At approximately 7 p.m., three males entered the store wearing balaclavas and hoodies.

One of the suspects brandished a hammer toward the clerk, while the other two suspects went behind the counter to steal cash and cigarettes.

As the suspects were exiting the store, police said a customer was robbed of his wallet and cellphone before the thieves fled in a vehicle.

No one was injured.

The signage on the front of the store, located across the street from the Beer Store, still bears the Mac's convenience name, but the company was recently rebranded as Circle K Convenience.

Suspect descriptions are as follows:

Suspect 1: Male, possibly Asian, late teens to early 20s, five-foot-seven to five-foot-nine, thin build, thick eyebrows, wide nose, wearing black hoodie with hood up, grey gloves, black pants with two stripes down side, grey tote bag, dark running shoes.

Suspect 2: Male, dark skin, late teens to early 20s, medium build, wearing grey hoodie with hood up, black pants, black gloves, black running shoes, black balaclava, and carrying hammer in right hand.

Suspect 3: Male, black, late teens to early 20s, five-foot-seven to five-foot-nine, thin build, wearing black hoodie with hood up, black pants, black gloves, black balaclava, blue backpack.
