

Georgetown Hip scores tourney title in Czech Republic

A men's hockey team, comprised of players from the local Georgetown Men's Non-Contact Hockey League (GMNCHL) recently travelled to Prague, Czech Republic to compete in an international amateur hockey tournament named Prague's Barrel.

After qualification round games against teams from Russia and Ukraine, Georgetown was seeded against the Stockholm Knights from Sweden in the semifinals, who they beat 10-3 to advance. In the finals they faced a team from Italy, and after a chippy and close first period, Georgetown pulled away to win 7-3 and claim first

As the only Canadian representatives in the tournament, the team wore Canadian "Hip" jerseys as a tribute to the late Gord Downie of the Tragically Hip.

Minor peewee Thunder takes Notre Dame tourney in OT

Connor Brown scored at the 1:20 mark of overtime to give the Halton Hills minor peewee A Thunder a 3-2 victory over the Burlington Eagles and the championship title at the Irish South Bend Cup on the historic campus of the University of Notre Dame in Indiana.

In the preliminary round, the Thunder thumped the Muskegon Jr. Jacks 7-2, lost to Burlington 4-3 and defeated the Cazenovia Chiefs 9-2 to set up a rematch with the Eagles in the final on the same ice surface that they had watched the Notre Dame varsity men's team play on the night before.
