

GIFT-WRAPPING SERVICE FOR GOOD CAUSES

Eamonn Maher/Metroland

Members of the Georgetown Christian Reformed Church have set up shop in front of Bergsma's Paint & Decor in the Georgetown Market Place and are more than happy to wrap your gifts in exchange for a free-will donation. Proceeds from the wrapping will go to a number of charitable organizations, including the Bennett Centre Angel Fund, the Georgetown Bread Basket food bank and the church's own Serve projects in underdeveloped countries.

POLICE BRIEFS

Trio of motorists facing alcohol charges

Three out-of-town drivers were charged with alcohol-related charges in Halton Hills during a busy weekend for Halton regional police officers.

Eleven people were charged between Friday and Sunday on Halton-area roads after allegedly drinking and getting behind the wheel of a vehicle.

On Friday morning just after 2:30 a.m., a traffic stop was initiated near the intersection of Guelph and Adamson streets in Norval.

Following an investigation, Codie Dodgson, 22, of Brampton was charged with impaired operation of a motor vehicle and exceeding the blood-alcohol limit.

Another Brampton man faces the charge of refusing or failing to provide a breath sample after police pulled over a vehicle in the area of the Nashville North Party Bar in Norval. Parminder Singh, 22, was charged.

At around 1:30 a.m. on Sunday, a vehicle was stopped just east of Norval on Guelph Street. Fabian Avella, 26, of Woodstock has been charged with having more than 80 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood.

Man charged with impaired driving twice within a week

Halton Regional Police charged a local man with impaired driving Thursday morning, just six days after he was arrested for the same offence about a kilometre away.

Police reported that on Dec. 7 at around 2 a.m., a traffic stop was initiated in the area of Guelph Street and Delrex Boulevard.

Robert Wight, 20, of Halton Hills was charged with impaired operation of a motor vehicle and exceeding the blood alcohol limit (80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood).

On Friday, Dec. 1, just after 2:30 a.m., an officer pulled over a vehicle near Guelph Street and Adamson Street in Norval. Wight, a Brampton native, was charged with impaired operation of a motor vehicle and driving over 80 milligrams.
