A busy winter is shaping up at HALC-Georgetown

FLORENCE RIEHL

We had a great whirlwind trip to Greece, Italy, and Portugal as a part of our Around the World celebration.

We sampled treats from each of the countries and learned about their Christmas celebrations. Thanks to staff and their helpers for a great afternoon.

Thanks to all who posted bids in the Silent Auction. Congratulations if you were one of the successful bidders and got the item you so dearly wanted.

Once more you came through in this season of giving. The generosity of our members saw our three bins full to overflowing and were emptied several times. Doesn't it just make you feel good all over?

The Centre will be closed Friday, Dec. 22 at 12 p.m. in order to start to replace carpet in the lounge. It will reopen on Tuesday, Jan. 2, at 8:30 a m

We begin the new year

Mith two new activities. At 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 9, Bonnie Malenfont, a member of the Halton Woodcarvers, will conduct a wood burning class to teach you how to do wood burning and you will complete a project. Cost will be $25/member or $30/non-member. This your own decorative Bundt pan, otherwise a disposable round container will be provided. Class begins at 10 a.m. and is open to only six participants so make sure you have signed up.

If you prefer, on the same day you can join with the Hort Heads as they make a bird wreath feeder.

Winter Active Living Programs begin the week of Jan. 8 and run for 12 weeks.

On Friday, Jan. 26 we are holding a pot luck dinner and dance beginning at 5:30 p.m. Dancing music will feature Neil Cotton and the Hawk's Nest Trio. Cost will be $7 for members and $12 nonmember.

Get your tickets now. Last day to purchase tickets will be Jan. 19.

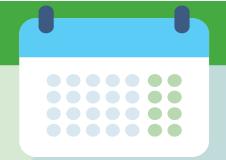

Memberships for 2018 are now due. They are still $35 for the year. You will need to have your membership paid to join the Active Living Programs

Looks like a busy winter is shaping up.
