

Willow Park Ecology Centre to hold Family Day Festival

If you missed out on the Big Daddy Festivities on Fathers' Day— you get a second chance to have some family fun this Sunday, July 21, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Willow Park portion of the Big Daddy Festival in June was postponed due to a thunderstorm threat. Although WPEC did manage to have fun with lots of participants who showed up before the thunderclouds arrived, WPEC organizers decided to hold a festival this Sunday to let more people take part in all of the fun activities.

Bring your picnic lunch with you and celebrate Native Canadian heritage. There will be demonstrations, games, and creative activities from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Kids can make and decorate their own drum and drum beater to play in the Drum Circle, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Drumming Circle will be held 1-3 p.m. Join in, sing, play your own drum, and hear stories about the original inhabitants of the area.

Create your wooden paddler for the "Paddle to the Sea" race at the end of the day, noon to 3 p.m.

Sail a your paddler in a little wooden canoe down the river to the finish line between 3:30 p.m. and 4 p.m. Prizes for the winners.

Paint a turtle or frog to decorate the compost/reuse area, and decorate a small turtle or frog or other creature to take home with you, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Have fun with the family and join the Scavenger Hunt, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., while you learn about the critters in the park. Prizes for the finished entries.

Learn how to make strawberry jam without using a stove. Demonstrations at 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
