New pastor

Maple Avenue Baptist Church will be inducting a new pastor Sunday, Sept. 8, at 4 p.m. Pastor James Seward came to Maple Avenue in June. He completed his undergraduate education at the University of Chicago, where he was also part of the founding core— and later a pastoral intern— at Holy Trinity Church. He went on to complete a Master's degree in Biblical Exegesis at Wheaton College where he also served on the pastoral staff at College Church under Kent Hughes. He served for five years as the Associate Pastor of Education and Discipleship at First Baptist Church of Lindale, Texas and has traveled to Vietnam to train pastors. He and his wife Karen have five children: Charlie, Ann, Jonathan, Eva and Mercy. James and Karen share a heart for adoption, reaching at risk children.
