

Firhoj 4th at MJT stop at Grey Silo

Georgetown's Dane Firhoj shot rounds of 73-78 to finish fourth in the juvenile boys' division at the Maple Leaf Junior Tour event held at the Grey Silo course in Waterloo last weekend. Acton's Riley Spear was 14th and Callum Biehn of Georgetown 15th.

Youths in the Dominican Republic were the beneficiaries of soccer attire and equipment from the Georgetown-based Chance to Play charitable organization.

Used soccer gear to be collected Saturday

Georgetown's Anita Bergsma started up her Chance to Play organization two years ago to provide an opportunity for kids in developing countries to play soccer and she's asking local residents to kick in for the campaign again this weekend.

In conjunction with the Georgetown Soccer Club, Chance to Play will be collecting "gently used" jerseys, shorts, socks, shoes balls and coaching material all day Saturday at the GSC's Closing Day at the Trafalgar Sports Park.

At Closing Day in 2011,

Chance to Play was thrilled to receive approximately $21,000 worth of gear from the public that went to children in Tanzania and the Philippines, although it took Bergsma and several volunteers many hours to sort and pack up the donations.

But after seeing photos of children in Tanzania taken by a friend sporting Georgetown Soccer Club uniforms while playing a game at school, Bergsma was overjoyed and vowed to keep up her efforts.

Last year, about $15,000 of clothing and equipment was collected on a cold and rainy Closing Day, some of which went to youths in the Dominican Republic, with this year's collection destined for a native reserve in Manitoba.

A toonie collection will also be held on Closing Day in order to help cover the cost of transporting the gear in shipping containers.

For more info, call Bergsma at 416-270-9127, e-mail anita.n.bergsma@gmail.com or visit the website www.chancetoplay.ca
