Just hanging on at the Fair

1,900 charged in Project Safe Start

By LISA TALLYN
Staff Writer

Halton Police laid more than 1,900 charges during Project Safe Start over the past couple of weeks.

The Project targeted School and Community Safety Zones to remind drivers to take extra care in those areas as the kids head back to school.

In total across the region, officers laid 1,908 charges.

The breakdown is:

- 1,152 for speeding
- 142 seatbelt infractions
- 158 stop sign infractions
- 456 others including 28 Distracted Driving charges

During the project several suspended drivers were taken off the road, two commercial vehicles were taken out of service for severe mechanical defects and at least one person was charged with Stunt Driving. All of these charges occurred in School and Community Safety Zones.

In Halton Hills specifically the charges were:

- 128 speeding (98 Georgetown and 30 Acton)
- 13 seatbelts (10 Georgetown and 3 Acton)
- 30 stop sign (24 Georgetown and 6 Acton)
