

Georgetown churches to gather for Unity Service this Sunday

On evening of Sunday, January 20 the churches of the Georgetown area will join with Christian churches around the world to celebrate the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

Each year between January 18 and 25 Christians of various traditions take time to pray and reflect on the call we have to be one in Jesus Christ.

Here in Georgetown the Ministerial Association includes Catholics and Baptists, Anglicans and Pentecostals, United and Alliance, Reformed, Salvation Army, Lutherans and Presbyterians. All will be gathering together for a special Christian Unity service at 7 p.m. in Norval Presbyterian Church, 499 Guelph St.

Christians of all traditions are welcome and invited, as is any member of the local community. Come celebrate the good news that all are made one in Christ.

...And Acton churches unite next Sunday

The Acton Ministerial Association wishes to announce the Annual Unity Service for 2013.

It will be held once again at the Acton Royal Canadian Legion, 15 Wright Avenue on Sunday, January 27 at 10:30 a.m. with special guest speaker Reverend David Tapley.

There will be a children's program as well for children, 4 years and up, at the same time as the adult service.

Scholarship up for grabs in Optimist essay contest

The Optimist Club of Halton Hills is hosting an essay contest where the district winner will be awarded a $2,500 college/university scholarship.

This year's topic: "How can I help my friends realize their value?" Essays submitted must be 700-800 words.

The contest is open to students who are attending a school in Halton Hills, under 19 years of age as of December 31, 2012.

The winning essay submitted to the Optimist Club of Halton Hills will be submitted to the Central Ontario District of Optimist International.

Essays must be submitted no later than January 31, 2013, must have the completed application form and a copy of the contestant's birth certificate.
