Georgetown man charged with trafficking

A Georgetown man is facing drug trafficking charges after police arrested another man for possession of cocaine Thursday evening.

Investigation revealed the identity of a person who had sold the man the drugs.

As a result, police executed a search warrant at a Georgetown home seizing 16 grams of cocaine, approximately 60 grams of marijuana and $6,000 in cash. The estimated value of the drugs seized is $1,800.

Charged with trafficking in a controlled substance (cocaine), and two counts of possession for the purpose of trafficking is Christopher Louth, 25.

Charged with possession of a controlled substance (cocaine) is Christopher Murray, 26, of Georgetown.
