$750,000 fire damage to a Glen home

By LISA TALLYN
Staff Writer

The Ontario Fire Marshal is investigating the cause of a fire that resulted in about $750,000 worth of damage to a Bishop Court home Friday afternoon.

Halton Hills Fire Department battled a blaze at a home on Bishop Court in Glen Williams on Friday.

Halton Hills firefighters responded to a fire alarm at the home about 1 p.m.

A teenager at home alone had heard a loud popping noise coming from the basement, where the fire started, and then saw smoke and flames.

He escaped uninjured.

While battling the stubborn blaze a firefighter fell through the floor of the main floor kitchen into the basement, but was uninjured and resumed his duties shortly after.

Firefighters remained on the scene until about 6 p.m.

There was fire damage to the basement and kitchen area and smoke and heat damage throughout the home.

The fire is not deemed suspicious.
