Playwright attends GLT's performance of his play

By ROXANNE THORTON
Georgetown Little Theatre

Georgetown Little Theatre's Frozen Dreams played to a packed house Sunday afternoon at their ACT-CO (Association of Community Theatre- Central Ontario) festival performance.

This outstanding show not only received a standing ovation from the audience but was also praised by the playwright as the best production he had seen of his show to date.

Peterborough playwright, Robert Ainsworth, is best known for his award winning show, Mouse House, which won best production for all of Ontario last spring. It was a great honor to have him attend the show and the adjudication.

The adjudicator, Autumn Smith, is the co-founding member and Artistic Director of MacKenzieRo: The Irish Repertory Theatre Company of Canada. She also praised the cast for their fine performance, authentic set and realistic costumes.

You don't want to miss Frozen Dreams (see Ted Brown's review <http://www.theifp.ca/whats-on/review-glts-frozen-dreams-is-gripping/>) which continues to play at the Acton Town Hall Centre, 19 Willow St. tonight (Feb.
