

GLT and tFML work together to present edgy Studio Shows

Georgetown Little Theatre and the Failed Magician's League (tFML) present See Bob Run and Thom Pain, 8 p.m. at the GLT Studio, Feb. 28 to March 2.

The Studio Shows, staged in the intimate and accessible space at 33 Stewarttown Rd, aim at offering audiences a somewhat edgier and more provocative night of theatre than is the norm of GLT's mainstage productions. Come out to see these two one-actor shows starring Aidan Hammond and Ian O'Brien respectively and both directed by Ken Smith.

Those familiar with tFML's past productions and local playwright O'Brien's writing style will find similarities in both these pieces.

See Bob Run comes from award-winning Canadian playwright Daniel Macivior. It's a one woman play about Bob and her journey to "the water" where she hopes she can wash away the brutal reality of her past and enter a fantasy of "the most perfect pretend".

Thom Pain (Based On Nothing) by Will Eno was a finalist for the 2005 Pulitzer Prize. The New York Times described "Thom Pain is at bottom a surreal meditation on the empty promises life makes, the way experience never lives up to the weird and awesome fact of being. But it is also, in its odd, bewitching beauty, an affirmation of life's worth... a small masterpiece."

Performance dates are February 28th and March 1st and 2nd. Tickets are $10 at the door, or pay what you can (partial proceeds will be donated to Canadian Association of Mental Health).
