Superior named a superior business

Citizen of year, business owner misidentified

In Tuesday's edition of The Independent & Free Press the first name of 2012 Georgetown Citizen of the Year winner Graeme Goebelle was misspelled in two references.

In the same edition, Chris Brooks of Brooks Heating and Air, which was named Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce's Business of the Month, was incorrectly identified.

The Independent & Free Press regrets the errors.
