

SPORTS & LEISURE

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

We are calling on YOU, our families, friends and neighbours. With our client numbers growing, the demand for our services is also increasing, leading to an even greater need for volunteers. Our Residential Campaign during the month of April needs volunteers to canvass door to door.

If you can spare even a few hours of your time, please call Betty 905-702-8886 or email bfendley@cancerassistance.org

Raiders grab 2-1 lead on Patriots

Robbie Murden netted the winning marker in the second period as the host Georgetown Raiders skated past the Toronto Lakeshore Patriots 4-1 on Saturday in an Ontario Junior Hockey League playoff contest.

The Raiders lead the best-of-7 South West Conference quarterfinal series 2-1, with game four at the MasterCard Centre in Etobicoke tonight (Tuesday) at 7 p.m. Game five is set for the Alcott Arena Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Tyler McCarthy, Drake Hart and Alex Botten also tallied in game three for the Raiders, who were outshot 36-33 in front of about 300 spectators.

On Friday night, sixth-seeded Toronto Lakeshore led 3-0 early in the second period on a goal by local resident and OJHL Second Team All-Star Alex D'Oliveira, going on to a 5-1 win to even the series. Nathan Feric had a hat trick for the Pats, with rookie defender Santino Centorame getting third-place Georgetown's lone goal.

If a sixth game is required, it will be played Friday at the MasterCard Centre at 8 p.m. Game seven is set for Alcott Arena Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Former Raider and local resident Andy Bathgate was named Ontario University of Athletics West Division rookie of the year after finishing 14th overall in league scoring with 16 goals and 16 assists in 23 games for Guelph.

Georgetown Raiders' forward Drake Hart gets knocked down by Toronto Lakeshore's Michael Apreda during Saturday's playoff encounter at the Alcott Arena. Hart's late second-period goal gave the Raiders a two-goal lead and they went on to a 4-1 win, taking a 2-1 edge in the best-of-7 series.

Photo by Brian Watts/OJHL Images

Rep Raiders eye OMHA final berths

Two Georgetown AA rep teams can book their spots in the Ontario Minor Hockey Association championship finals with victories tonight (Tuesday) on home ice at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex.

The Sunny Acre Farms midget Raiders lead Brampton 2-1 in their best-of-5 OMHA semifinal series after a dramatic 5-4 overtime win in Brampton Sunday afternoon. Jacob Hector and captain Ben Nicolucci scored in the final minute of regulation to force OT and then Callaghan Murphy slapped in the winner.

Game four is set for the Alcott A pad Tuesday at 9 p.m. Ajax leads Barrie three points to one in the other OMHA AA semifinal.

Meanwhile, the minor bantam AA Raiders are also up 2-1 on Minor Oaks of Oakville after a pair of 6-3 wins on the weekend and can clinch the series with a win Tuesday beginning at 8:45 p.m. at the Alcott B rink.

CtK Jaguars now set sights on GHAC Tier I hockey crown

For the third time in the last four years, Christ the King's Jaguars have claimed the Halton Tier I boys' hockey championship and will host today's (Tuesday's) Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference final against Hamilton's Bishop Ryan beginning at 2:30 p.m.

A victory over Bishop Ryan will send the Jags on to the 16-team OF-SAA AAA/AAAA championship tournament March 19-22 in Brampton.

CtK's boys, who lost just once during the regular season, defeated Oakville's Holy Trinity Titans 5-2 on Thursday at the Sixteen Mile Sports Complex to capture the Halton title.

After taking the first two penalties of the contest, CtK settled down and took advantage of an undisciplined Holy Trinity side, with Daryl Hanzelka scoring twice and Mike Nicolucci adding another in building a 3-0 lead through the first period.

"We have a pretty talented group but sometimes they think they can just get by on talent," said CtK head coach Scott Van de Valk.

"Our discipline was the difference today. We told them, 'Take some abuse, keep your feet moving and you will put yourself in good position to win.'"

Hanzelka ended up with a hat trick on the afternoon, with Nicolucci notching three assists. Brad Ranson also tallied and defender Connor Mortimer collected two helpers.

A 1-0 loss to Burlington's Assumption in last year's HSSAA final disrupted the Jaguars' recent dynasty.

In girls' action, Christ the King was edged out in the Halton Tier I semifinals last week by Corpus Christi of Burlington with a 3-2 defeat in Oakville.

CTK JAGUARS HSSAA TIER I CHAMPIONS

GEORGETOWN TOYOTA

Playoffs

GEORGETOWN JR. A

RAIDERS

VS

TORONTO LAKESHORE

Wednesday, March 6, 2013 - 8:00 pm
Mold-Masters SportsPlex (Alcott Arena)

GO RAIDERS
GO!

GEORGETOWN JUNIOR "A"

www.georgetownraidersjra.com

GAME OF THE WEEK